

Jack London: Apostle of the American West

Centennial Celebration, Symposium, and Exhibit presented by *ArtsWest:
Great Writers of the West Series*

Monday, September 19
4:15pm Presentations
6:15pm Reception

This panel presentation will focus on three aspects of Jack London:

- > his unique biography and photojournalism
- > the Gilded Age in the American West and the era in which he lived
- > vibrant scholarship and influence on Western fiction

Featuring

Peter Blodgett

Chief Curator of Western Manuscripts
Huntington Library

Donna M. Campbell

Professor of English
Washington State University

Sue (Sara) Hodson

Curator of the Jack London Papers
Huntington Library

Jeanne C. Reesman

Professor of English
University of Texas at San Antonio

*Moderated by Professor Bruce Cain
Spence and Cleone Eccles Family Director
Bill Lane Center for the American West*

Stanford Faculty Club, Gold Lounge

This event is free and open to the public, but advance registration is encouraged. Parking is free after 4pm; attendees may park at 439 Lagunita Drive

RSVP: <http://west.stanford.edu/events>

Questions: westcenter@stanford.edu

Co-sponsored by:

STANFORD UNIVERSITY
THE BILL LANE CENTER FOR THE AMERICAN WEST

STANFORD
UNIVERSITY LIBRARIES

This event will also feature a curated pop-up exhibit made possible by a loan from the private collections of Sarah and Darius Anderson of Sonoma. This special exhibit considers the cult of celebrity surrounding Jack London in the twentieth century, and the hold that he continues to have on the Western imagination.